The Debate on 100% Renewable Energy: The new normal?

The campaign

GO100% is the first global campaign that advocates 100% renewable energy. It connects and builds on initiatives that already take place on national, regional and local level and hereby ups the international debate on renewable energy towards 100%. The overall goal is to brand 100% renewable energy as the new normal and to establish an international network of 100% RE regions.
